April 18, 2009

Show # 105 AUSTIN – 2008 (KAKW)

Guests: Montserrat Garibay, University Leadership Initiative
Norma Almanza; Texas Department of Insurance
Father Miguel Duarte, Writer El Mundo Newspaper

SEGMENT No. 1

Show starts with headlines of the latest statewide news. Headlines include bills discussed in the Texas House and Senate this week that included the topics of casinos, a statewide smoking ban, new driver licenses rules for immigrants, the injunction placed on the Texas Department of Public Safety and the Voter ID.

SEGMENT NO. 2

Montserrat Garibay represents the University Leadership Initiative group at the University of Texas at Austin. Montserrat, an undocumented university student supports the Dream Act reintroduced in Congress last week. Thousands of undocumented college students in Texas pay in-state tuition at Texas public universities and qualify to receive financial aid from the state because of the Law HB 1403. Montserrat Garibay graduated from U.T., but her legal status does not qualify her for career. She continued to explain why the “Dream Act” in Washington, is now her only hope.

Our correspondent Fernando Pizarro provided a summary of the Dream Act.

SEGMENT NO. 3

Norma Almanza explained the different kinds of insurance provided by the Texas Department of Insurance. She explained how to investigate your insurance company and agent, tips on how find the right company, how to prepare for a natural disaster, what to do after a disaster and how to research the different terms covered in life, house or vehicle insurance policies. Austin Correspondent Luis Gomez discussed the type of help provided by the state after homeowners in Central Texas received heavy damage on their homes after a hailstorm. A 1(800) number and web site page for the Texas Department of Insurance is also provided.

SEGMENT NO. 4

ARTICULO DE LA SEMANA

Mario Tapia, writer with El Mundo Newspaper provided his opinion about a possible immigration reform and the border wall.

YA ES HORA. HAGASE CONTAR

We started this campaign by introducing the partnership between the National Census 2010 and NALEO. NALEO's web page is included in this segment.

We close the program by providing the new email address where our audience can provide feedback, tips, and ideas.
